

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

Washington, Nov. 29.—President Gompers and Secretary Morrison, including all other members of the executive committee, were re-elected at the Rochester convention of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Hayes was supported by the Socialist contingent in his race against Mr. Gompers for the presidency, but fell far short in number of votes. Mr. Gompers received 5,700 votes, while Mr. Hayes received 1,000. President Gompers was re-elected for a second year, and Secretary Morrison was re-elected for a second year. The convention also elected a new executive committee, and a new board of directors. The new executive committee is headed by Mr. Gompers, and the new board of directors is headed by Mr. Morrison. The convention also elected a new board of directors, and a new board of directors. The new board of directors is headed by Mr. Gompers, and the new board of directors is headed by Mr. Morrison.

THE STEELIE INCIDENT.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—Numerous reports throughout the country recently pointed a star to the effect that the Chicago Steelie incident was the result of a plot by the American Federation of Labor. The incident, which occurred in Chicago, involved the arrest of a group of men who were alleged to be members of the American Federation of Labor. The men were arrested on the charge of being involved in a plot to overthrow the government. The incident was widely reported in the press, and many people were convinced that the American Federation of Labor was involved in the plot. However, the American Federation of Labor has denied any involvement in the incident, and has stated that the men who were arrested were not members of the American Federation of Labor.

DUBOQUE BUILDING TRADES.

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 29.—For many months past, the building trades in Dubuque have been engaged in a struggle with the contractors. The building trades have been demanding higher wages and better working conditions, and the contractors have been refusing to meet these demands. The struggle has been going on for some time, and it has resulted in many strikes and lockouts. The building trades have been demanding a 10 percent increase in wages, and the contractors have been refusing to meet this demand. The building trades have also been demanding better working conditions, and the contractors have been refusing to meet these demands. The struggle has been going on for some time, and it has resulted in many strikes and lockouts.

LABOR TEMPLE DEDICATED.

San Jose, Cal., Nov. 29.—The trade unionists of this city have dedicated the new Labor Temple. The temple is a large, modern building, and it is the first of its kind in the city. The temple is dedicated to the memory of the workers who have died in the struggle for better working conditions. The temple is a symbol of the strength and unity of the labor movement. The temple is a place where workers can go to receive help and support. The temple is a place where workers can go to learn about their rights and responsibilities. The temple is a place where workers can go to organize and fight for their rights.

STAGE HANDS WIN.

London, Ont., Nov. 29.—The managers of the Grand Opera House have been defeated in their attempt to force the stage hands to work longer hours. The stage hands have won their fight for a shorter workday. The stage hands have been demanding a 40-hour workweek, and the managers have been refusing to meet this demand. The stage hands have also been demanding better working conditions, and the managers have been refusing to meet these demands. The stage hands have won their fight for a shorter workday, and they have also won their fight for better working conditions.

ADOPTS WAGE INCREASE.

Denver, Nov. 29.—Recently the City Council has adopted a wage increase for the city employees. The wage increase is 10 percent, and it is the first increase in wages for city employees in many years. The wage increase is a result of the efforts of the city employees' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The city employees' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

IRON MOLDERS GET ADVANCE.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 29.—The Wheeling Iron Molders have secured a wage increase. The iron molders have been demanding a 10 percent increase in wages, and the employers have been refusing to meet this demand. The iron molders have won their fight for a wage increase, and they have also won their fight for better working conditions. The iron molders have been demanding better working conditions, and the employers have been refusing to meet these demands. The iron molders have won their fight for better working conditions, and they have also won their fight for a wage increase.

STRIKES' HIT RUNNING.

Byron, Nov. 29.—The strike in Byron has hit the running. The strike is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

ARBITRATION BOARD AWARD

Washington, Nov. 29.—The arbitration board has awarded a wage increase to the workers. The wage increase is 10 percent, and it is the first increase in wages for workers in many years. The wage increase is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

MASSACHUSETTS LABOR REPORT.

Boston, Nov. 29.—The Bureau of Statistics of this State has published its quarterly report on the state of employment. The report shows that the state of employment is improving. The number of people who are employed is increasing, and the number of people who are unemployed is decreasing. The report also shows that the wages of workers are increasing. The wages are a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

CIVIL SERVICE IN NAVY YARDS.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Regulations for the civil service in the navy yards have been adopted. The regulations are a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

DEFEAT CO-OPERATIVE SCHEME.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 29.—At a meeting in this city of the National Grange, a plan for a co-operative scheme was defeated. The plan was a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

CAMPAIGN OF AFFILIATION.

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 29.—Secretary Martin P. Joyce of the Massachusetts Federation of Labor has announced a campaign of affiliation. The campaign is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

BUILDING TRADES DEPARTMENT.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 29.—The annual convention of the Building Trades Department has been held. The convention is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

STRIKES SUFFERING.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 29.—Many strikes in this city are suffering. The strikes are a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

TO BUILD LABOR TEMPLE.

Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, Nov. 29.—The city council has decided to build a labor temple. The temple is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

LABOR'S POLITICAL PROGRAMME INDORSED BY THE ROCHESTER CONVENTION

Rochester, Nov. 29.—During the consideration of the report of the committee on president's report on November 21, at the Rochester convention of the A. F. of L., the committee recommended that that portion of the president's report under the caption "American Federation of Labor's Political Program" be adopted, and that the committee be authorized to carry out the program. The committee also recommended that the committee be authorized to carry out the program. The committee also recommended that the committee be authorized to carry out the program.

A motion was made and seconded that the report of the committee be concurred in. This was a signal for a number of the delegates to not only criticize the political programme as carried out by the American Federation of Labor, but also to demand that the committee be authorized to carry out the program. The committee also recommended that the committee be authorized to carry out the program. The committee also recommended that the committee be authorized to carry out the program.

POST SMASHED AGAIN.

Washington, Nov. 29.—C. E. Post, the publisher of the "Post" newspaper, has been indicted for conspiracy. The indictment is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

New York, Nov. 29.—Delegates from nearly every State in the Union met in New York City recently under the auspices of the National Association of Manufacturers to discuss the subject of workmen's compensation. The delegates are expected to report to their respective legislatures. The delegates are expected to report to their respective legislatures. The delegates are expected to report to their respective legislatures.

YIELD TO EIGHT-HOUR LAW.

Baltimore, Nov. 29.—At a recent meeting of the city of Baltimore, the city council has decided to yield to the eight-hour law. The decision is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

LARGE TROLLEYMEN'S UNION.

Boston, Nov. 29.—The strike of the trolley men in Boston has resulted in the formation of a large trolley men's union. The union is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

DAY LABOR CHEAPER.

London, Ont., Nov. 29.—It has been estimated in this city that the cost of day labor is cheaper than ever before. The cost is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

METAL WORKERS WIN.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 29.—The local union of metal workers in Baltimore has won a wage increase. The wage increase is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

NEW STATE FEDERATION.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 29.—The new state federation of labor in New York has been organized. The federation is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

APPEAL WAS NOT SUSTAINED

Rochester, Nov. 29.—The Central Labor Board of Oakland, Cal., some time ago refused to comply with Section 2 of Article II of the American Federation of Labor. The board was ordered to comply with the section, but it refused to do so. The board was ordered to comply with the section, but it refused to do so. The board was ordered to comply with the section, but it refused to do so.

NAVY GETS CONTRACT.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The Washington Navy Yard is the lowest bidder for the construction of the new ship building industry in the United States. The yard is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

FLUMBERS AND STEAM FITTERS.

Rochester, Nov. 29.—The committee on adjustment of the American Federation of Labor has reported to the convention. The report is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

LADY CLERKS ORGANIZING.

New York, Nov. 29.—The ladies of New York City are organizing a union. The union is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Washington, Nov. 29.—An important adjustment of the Bureau of Labor and Statistics has been made. The adjustment is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

SHIP AIDS OPENED.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Of the six orders for contracts for the construction of six torpedo-boats destroyed for the Navy, the first order has been awarded to the Shipbuilding Company of Quincy, Mass. The order is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

SHIP AIDS OPENED.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Of the six orders for contracts for the construction of six torpedo-boats destroyed for the Navy, the first order has been awarded to the Shipbuilding Company of Quincy, Mass. The order is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

PRINTING PRESSMEN.

Rochester, Nov. 29.—The committee on adjustment of the Rochester convention of the A. F. of L. is dealing with the printing pressmen. The committee is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

CLOSE STEEL MILLS.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The railroad men in the United States are demanding a wage increase. The demand is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

OTHERS ASK INCREASE.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The railroad men in the United States are demanding a wage increase. The demand is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

WHOLE NO. 87

NAVY GETS CONTRACT.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The Washington Navy Yard is the lowest bidder for the construction of the new ship building industry in the United States. The yard is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

FLUMBERS AND STEAM FITTERS.

Rochester, Nov. 29.—The committee on adjustment of the American Federation of Labor has reported to the convention. The report is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

LADY CLERKS ORGANIZING.

New York, Nov. 29.—The ladies of New York City are organizing a union. The union is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Washington, Nov. 29.—An important adjustment of the Bureau of Labor and Statistics has been made. The adjustment is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

SHIP AIDS OPENED.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Of the six orders for contracts for the construction of six torpedo-boats destroyed for the Navy, the first order has been awarded to the Shipbuilding Company of Quincy, Mass. The order is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

SHIP AIDS OPENED.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Of the six orders for contracts for the construction of six torpedo-boats destroyed for the Navy, the first order has been awarded to the Shipbuilding Company of Quincy, Mass. The order is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

PRINTING PRESSMEN.

Rochester, Nov. 29.—The committee on adjustment of the Rochester convention of the A. F. of L. is dealing with the printing pressmen. The committee is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

CLOSE STEEL MILLS.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The railroad men in the United States are demanding a wage increase. The demand is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

OTHERS ASK INCREASE.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The railroad men in the United States are demanding a wage increase. The demand is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.

RAILWAY CARMEN.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The railroad men in the United States are demanding a wage increase. The demand is a result of the efforts of the workers' union. The union has been fighting for higher wages and better working conditions for many years. The workers' union has won its fight for a wage increase, and it has also won its fight for better working conditions.